TOKYO.

On the 15th instant a slight look place between some soldiers of the Tokyo Garrison and policemen in front of the temple of Shokokuji. Each member of this civil force was wounded.

On the 6th instant there was a disastrous fire at Nigata, in which about seven hundred houses were burned to the ground. On the following day a fire at Tokoku, ending, destroyed some 20 houses.

The Hochi Shimbun says that the three men-of-war which were ordered by the Japanese Government to England have been completed at a cost of more than ten million yen. Mr. Uyeno, Japanese minister in London, has been authorized to send them to Japan.

A hospital, built in Anglo-Japanese style, from the designs of Dr. A. Holteman of the Kanagawa hospital, was inaugurated at Toyama (Ochiu) on the 6th instant, with the usual ceremonies and feasting. It is to be under the charge of Dr. Tsuchi Sigeo, of Kanagawa.

There is a great demand for Mr. Kishida Gintaro's medicine in Korea. Rice has fallen in price, but hardware and other goods are in demand, and foreign cotton cloth finds a good market.

The different parties in Tosa were only restrained from rising in rebellion during the civil war in Satsuma, by the energies of ex-Satsuma troops. There still seems to be some agitation prevailing among the numerous parties which exist in that province, some of whom are seeking to assassinate the Emperor.

On the 10th instant an entertainment took place at the Imperial Palace in commemoration of the victory over the insurgents, commencing at about 4 p.m. The Princess of Imperial blood, Daigin, and the high Naval, Military and Civil Officers, numbering over one hundred, were present and were regaled with tea and sweets. When His Majesty the Emperor appeared a dinner in foreign style was given. The feast, which the Army and Navy played in the garden, which was illuminated with lanterns. This is the largest entertainment which has been given since the Mikado returned to the Palace at Asakusa. It terminated at nine o'clock.

NAGASAKI.

One prominent feature marking the close of the campaign in Kushira is the return of the small fleet of coasting steamers to their legitimate routes from which they have, from one cause or other, been so long withheld.

The Tokyo Exhibition for home productions seems to have excited the emulation of all the industrial classes in Japan. The inhabitants of Matsuyama in Shikoku are making active preparation for an exhibition of domestic and their own manufactures, to be held next spring. This is a country hitherto almost unknown to foreigners, and would no doubt prove very interesting to visitors.

James Andrews, a seaman of H.B.M.'s corvette Modeste, accidentally fell overboard and was drowned. The body was recovered, and at an inquest held over it, a verdict of "Death from accidental drowning" was returned.

For many months past the Settlement has labored under the disadvantage of having no local government to supervise and control the disposal of such money as the landowners have a right to expect should be expended in their interests. It is a notorious fact that although heavy land-rents are levied on those residing in the Settlement, their personal convenience is so little studied, that quite one instance for the past two months residents have been compelled to depend upon their own lanterns and lamps to obtain the facility for travelling from house to house without a well-remembered lamp to provide them. We trust that with the change at H.B.M.'s Consulate, a new era in Nagasaki Municipal affairs will be inaugurated, and that all will join heartily in the endeavor, not only to render Nagasaki a more pleasant place to live in, but that it will be the experiment of leaving matters in the hands of native authorities has so far proved a failure that it is hoped the Consulate, and all, will be so desirous for amiable discussions ways and means to provide for the future well-being of the Foreign Settlement of Nagasaki.

The epidemic of cholera has abated, but various other diseases are prevalent. Small-pox has lately appeared in the Kichoshima Kan, and application for vaccine to be sent has been made to the proper authorities.

The cholera which has been so prevalent in this Kan was nearly all-banished on the 5th, and as a reward for their services during the time of the cholera they received from 10 to 15 yen each.
